A Once-Thriving Harbor is Revived

A Look at Mattapoisett's Harbor Days — Past and Present

After spending only a short time in Mattapoisett, there are certain things which are apparent from interacting with its pleasant, amiable residents. These include a genuine interest in helping each other, a pride in their individual achievements, and a knack for effective teamwork.

These qualities are never more obvious than during the town's annual Harbor Days celebration, this year marking its Tenth Anniversary.

Driven by the town's active Lions Club and many a helping hand, the weekend event — to be held July 16 - 18 — will be host to over 80 arts and crafts booths and will afford many residents the rare opportunity to catch up on old times, to chat with natives who have since moved away and return for the festivities, and to simply revel in the summer beauty that is the essence of the seaside community.

Highlights of this year's Harbor Days include:

Friday, July 16

- 5:30 - 8:00 pm — Chowder & Crab Roll Dinner
- 6:00 - 7:30 pm — Dartmouth Town Band
- 6:30 - 9:00 pm — Strawberry Festival

Saturday, July 17

- 10:00 am - 8:00 pm — Craft/Food Booths Open
- 10:00 am — Tri-County German Band
- 10:00 am - 4:00 pm — Massachusetts Eye Mobile (Glaucoma & Blood Pressure Testing)
- 11:30 am — Chris Richards "One Man Band"
- 1:00 pm — Jeff Dunn Band
- 5:00 - 7:00 pm — Ham & Bean Supper
- 5:30 pm — Harpoon Harmonizers
- 7:30 pm — Wharf Square Dance (Dick Leger, caller)

Sunday, July 18

- 8:00 - 10:00 am — Pancake Breakfast (with your dinosaur friend)
- 10:00 am - 4:00 pm — Craft Booths Open
- 10:00 am - 12:00 noon — Chris Richards "One Man Band"
- 10:00 am - 4:00 pm — Massachusetts Eye Mobile (Glaucoma & Blood Pressure Testing)
- 11:00 am - 4:00 pm — Food Booths Open
- 1:00 pm — Jeff Dunn Band
- 1:30 pm — Antique Car Display
- 3:30 pm — Antique Car Awards
- 3:45 pm — Raffle of Original Watercolor by David Baggerly (Commissioned by Mattapoisett Lions Club).

All proceeds from the weekend will go to charity, including the Lions Club Eye Research, local community projects and other charitable causes.

By early Friday morning the area around Shipyard Park will be bustling with activity as people prepare for the annual three-day event. One can imagine a similar scene some 120 years ago as workers combined their efforts to create some of the classic whaling vessels — not least of which included the Acushnet, the ship on which Herman Melville made a voyage and based his classic, Moby Dick, and the Wanderer, the last whaling bark built in Mattapoisett and the last to voyage out of New Bedford.

It is appropriate that the event is held on the harbor at Shipyard Park, for it pays a subtle homage to this once-thriving shipbuilding industry which was the town's trademark. Under the newly replaced flagpole — the top of which was the main mast for the Wanderer — people will once again work together to build not vessels, but a feeling of friendship and camaraderie.

Annual Mattapoisett Triathlon

On Sunday, July 11, the Mattapoisett Lions Club sponsored their annual town triathlon, which is usually a part of the Harbor Days celebration. This year, it was moved to the weekend before because it became too much to organize it during the same busy weekend.

Withstanding the oppressive environmental conditions — with high temperatures and cloying humidity — 75 competitors demonstrated their superior endurance and physical training to complete the test. Following are the top contenders of the quarter-mile swim, ten-mile bike, and three-mile run: Overall Male

- First — George Brent (Centerville)

On the cover: Standing at the entrance to Mattapoisett Harbor is the Ned's Point lighthouse, seen here during a scenic sunset. This weekend, the harbor and nearby Shipyard Park will become the center of activity for the town's Tenth Annual Harbor Days.

Time Capsule Shipbuilders of Mattapoisett

By Charles S. Mendell, Jr.

[Editor's Note: The following is an excerpt from a longer piece written by Mr. Mendell and presented during a meeting of the Old Dartmouth Historical Society on July 15, 1937 in Mattapoisett. Copies of the complete paper are available for $1 each at the Mattapoisett Historical Museum and Carriage House and will be on sale during Harbor Days. The Wanderer would like to thank Bette Roberts for her help in procuring this piece and Mr. Mendell's son, Seth, for granting permission to reprint it here.]

In its day Mattapoisett was the most famous whaleship building port in the world. The list of vessels known to have been built in Mattapoisett now numbers 300; and all indications show that if the early Custom House records of Nantucket and New Bedford were available, this number would be doubled.

Although a great deal is known of the 200-odd ships built in Mattapoisett during (the) years (after the War of 1812), of their builders and the yards, and of the Nantucket and New Bedford firms for which they sailed, it is manifestly impossible in a short paper to speak of even a fraction of them; so I will give merely a resumé of the shipyards and those whalers which became well-known to New Bedford people.

To the west of the present town wharves and extending around by the foot of Pearl Street lay the yard of Gideon Barstow Sr., which later passed to his son, Gideon Jr., and his grandson Wilson. Wilson Barstow's yard was one of the most noted of its time. He was no business man — he failed three times — but he hired the finest master builders available, and for over a quarter of a century, down his ways slid three, four, and five ships a year, and the majority sailed out of the harbor and around the Neck to join the New Bedford and Fairhaven whaling fleets. From his yard, also, came the largest vessel ever built in Mattapoisett, the Ship George Lee, of 650 tons, built in 1854 for the shipping firm of Cabot & Lee & Co. of Boston.

On the present Town Wharf property was the shipyard of Ebenezer Cannon Jr., established in 1792 and continuing until the formation of the Mattapoisett Wharf Co. in 1834. The vessels built here were mostly for merchantmen, one of the first of which was advertised in "The Medley," New Bedford's first newspaper.

The present Shipyard Park was the site of the famous Holmes shipyard, started in 1812 by Josiah Holmes Sr. and continuing until the Bark Wanderer, built where the bandstand sits now, slid down the ways in 1878, the last vessel ever launched in Mattapoisett. Josiah Holmes first formed a partnership with Benjamin Barstow; but in 1826 they agreed to disagree, and after that Holmes ran the yard by himself and then with his sons, Josiah Jr. and Jonathan. After the old man's death, the firm of Josiah Holmes Jr. and Brother was well known indeed in New Bedford, and particularly was popular with the Quaker whaling agents, for Josiah Jr. was of this faith. After the Civil War had ruined the industry, he moved to New Bedford and started the Holmes Coal Co., later carried on by his son and grandson.

Where the Anchorage is now* was the yard of William Moore, established in 1800 and perhaps the first to build large ships for New York. Moore failed in 1818, and the yard was purchased by Uncle Leonard Hammond, as he was called, a very versatile business man, and one of the shrewdest of shrewd Yankees. He ran the Plymouth County House, a tavern which sat between the present Anchorage and the street, which burned on a bitterly cold February night in 1855 when New Bedford sent a fire engine down that wouldn't pump until its insides were heated by hot bricks. (Also, it is related, many of the fire fighters were in a like fix until rum was used for the same purpose).

Besides running the shipyard, the County House, an extensive salt works on the Neck, a coastwide trade to Charleston, Savannah, and New Orleans, Uncle Leonard was a Government Lighthouse contractor. He built the lights at Mattapoisett and Gay Head, and in 1838 he sailed from Mattapoisett with two ships and a large crew of men to construct two lighthouses on the Gulf of Mexico.

Next to the East from the Anchorage, on the old William Rotch yard, Captain Wilson Barstow built until he failed in 1807. William Moore took it over and built until he failed; and then the yard was run by Eliakim Cannon until he failed in 1827. It is said that in this yard the bowsprits of the ships on the stocks hung far out over the street, so if you had arrived in Mattapoissett 115 years ago in the New Bedford and Plymouth Stage Coach, you would have ridden under the overhanging rigging as you jounced up to the Mattapoissett House across the street.

At the foot of Mechanic Street, on the present Hinsdale property (presently the Duff residence), was the famous Meigs shipyard. Joseph Meigs, Esq., was a prominent Citizen, State Senator, prosperous shipping merchant, and successful shipbuilder. He built and ran an old fashioned country tavern and store in what is now the Bay View Hotel. The tavern business must have been thriving, for it is said that Squire Meigs stood on a hill and every farm he could see was mortgaged for rum. In his early days he was Commission Merchant for the Rotches, Howlands, and Rodmans of New Bedford, handling their trade in Naval Stores, Lumber, Sugar Molasses, and Cotton in Savannah, Charleston, and New York. Of Squire Meigs' two sons, Joseph Jr. was by far the smarter, and his tragic death in the early thirties when he had just taken over the shipyard, broke the old man's spirit, and he passed away a few years later, in 1846. The other son, Loring, carried on the business until he was ruined by the panic of 1857.

Down at Cannonville at the foot of Ship Street, were two more yards of high reputation. The first was that of Benjamin Barstow, a nephew of old Gideon, who came from the Hanover shipyards before 1800, learned his trade in Mattapoissett, and then moved to New Bedford where he bought the shipyard which had been run by Colonel George Claghorn before he went to Boston and built the Constitution. Here Benjamin built ships for several years; then returned to Mattapoissett and went into the partnership with Josiah Holmes. When this broke up in 1826, he started the yard at Cannonville, later taking his sons, Nathan H. and Henry, into the firm, which continued in business until the discovery of gold in California in 1849 sent Nathan and Henry, along with over a hundred other Mattapoissett men, around the Horn and up to the gold fields. From this yard came many whaling ships, among them the Ship William C. Nye, the first live oak vessel built in Mattapoissett, whose workmanship was so expert that 10 years later a New Bedford newspaper spoke of it.

The other yard at Cannonville was that of Ebenezer Cannon 3rd. This yard ran for only a few years during the 1830's, but at least two fine ships were launched there to augment the Nantucket whaling fleet. On one occasion Dr. Robbins tells in his diary of two full rigged ships launched on successive days.

The 1840's were the heyday of whaling, and again about fifty whalers slid down the ways in Mattapoisett Harbor. Time permits of speaking of only two of these — the Platina, which had the distinction, while sailing for the firm of J. & W. R. Wing, of capturing the only white whale ever taken; and the Ship Acushnet, which was, I suppose, the whaleship having the greatest claim to fame.

The Acushnet was built in 1840 by G. Barstow & Son in their yard at the foot of Pearl Street, and on her maiden voyage from Fairhaven she carried as one of her crew, Herman Melville, who immortalized the whaling saga in his "Moby Dick." The log of that first voyage seems irretrievably lost, and if found would be worth a fortune. The log of her second voyage, when she sailed under Capt. William B. Rogers of Mattapoisett, reposes peacefully in the Harvard Library; but alas, this is not the one we want. In all probability, the Acushnet was almost exactly like the Charles W. Morgan. True, one was built in Mattapoisett and the other in New Bedford, but their launchings were less than a year apart, and their dimensions and tonnage were practically the same. The Acushnet was lost on her third voyage on St. Lawrence Island, August 16, 1851.

But the death knell of this splendid business had already sounded. 1856 was the last big year — nine whalers, three in a row looming up in Shipyard Park. The blows were coming; 1856 — petroleum discovered; 1857 — panic, and Meigs yard closed forever; 1861 — the Civil War, and the Alabama and the Shenendoah; after the war, the scarcity of whales and the losses in the Arctic ice. During the war the Holmes' built a small steamboat and a tugboat; in 1866 Wilson Barstow built his last ship — the Contest, for Gibbs & Perry of New Bedford. After the war the Holmes' built a schooner and four whalers — the Alaska for Jonathan Bourne, the Concordia for G. & M. Howland, the Gay Head 2nd for Gifford & Cummings, and in 1878 the Wanderer for the same firm.

This was the end. For the last time Arvin Cannon with his lips pursed over his toothless gums carefully drew out the vessel's hull in the loft over the Holmes Office. For the last time the hammering of the caulkers awakened echoes through the streets and across the farms into the woods. For the last time the ship carpenters had their glass of grog at "eleven and four." And for the last time the townspeople gathered to see the graceful vessel start slowly, then glide down the greased ways into the harbor of the shipbuilders.

It was the end of a Yankee seaport village where native born sons worked all their lives in a native industry. Where every house — and most of them are still here — was the home of a ship carpenter, outfitter, or whalerman. Where the schools and churches and homes were built with money from the shipyards. And where practically every man was an expert craftsman of high integrity.

It seems entirely fitting that the mizzen mast of the Wanderer should stand as the flagpole in Shipyard Park, a few feet from where she was built. And even more, it seems a proper coincidence that the Wanderer, the last vessel built in Mattapoisett, should be the last whaleship to sail from New Bedford — New Bedford, whose whaling industry was responsible for Mattapoisett's shipbuilding fame.

Following the signing of the payroll and bills for the week, the board approved the minutes of the June 29 meeting and the June 29 Executive Session. The board then signed correspondence to David F. Brownell of Brownell Boat Yard, Inc. relative to the placement of the flagpole at Shipyard Park.

Meetings scheduled throughout the week were as follows:

- Thursday, July 8, 7:30 pm — Tri-Town Selectmen will hold a Recycling Meeting at the Marion Town House.

- Sunday, July 11, 8:00 am - 12:00 noon — Mattapoisett's Annual Triathlon will take place.

- Monday, July 12, 7:00 pm — The Board of Selectmen will meet with the Police Brotherhood regarding union negotiations.

The board next met with Harbormaster Steve Mach regarding the promulgation of a proposed amendment to the Harbormaster's Mooring and Anchorage Rules and Regulations. The amendment read as follows:

"1. Motorized Personal Watercraft — Operation of motorized personal watercraft, also known as PWC's, jet skis, waverunners, or wet bikes, and other high-powered watercraft of a similar kind of nature, however named, is prohibited within the Inner Harbor."

Mr. Mach said there have been problems with these before. "We've had them in the past and shooed them away," he said. "This didn't work. The number (of these high-powered watercraft) is increasing. I propose we not let them in the inner harbor."

Selectman Mahoney added these high horsepower crafts could produce serious problems to boaters and swimmers alike. Selectman Mahoney, to accentuate the dangers, cited an article from the Sunday, July 4 edition of The New York Times called "Boom in Boating Crowds the Summer Sea."

"Not all landings are soft," he read.

"Personal watercraft represent only 1 of every 60 power craft in America but are involved in one-third of all collisions that result in serious injury."

Selectman Lambalot agreed, stating "I was in favor of (the amendment) two years ago."

Harbormaster Mach has adopted the amendment and entered it for submission. The board will meet with Mr. Mach at a later date to discuss further changes in the Mooring and Anchorage Rules and Regulations.

Also discussed was the need to meet at the wharf for the purpose of placing the remaining six lights. Selectman Lambalot suggested they meet with the Harbor Days Committee for their input.

Next, Ron Silvia of Harvey Orchard Lane requested the board's help in the matter of rubbish pickup on his lane which is still not taking place. The board agreed to assist Mr. Silvia.

Under incoming correspondence for the week, Chairman DeCosta noted the following items:

- A letter from the Board of Health requesting the appointment of Anthony Bruno of 13 Angelica Avenue and Barry Perkins of 23 North Street as members of the Recycling Committee. The board agreed to both appointments.

- Notice was received from the Alcoholic Beverages Control Commission advising that the "Tag-A-Keg" Regulation became effective on July 2. This regulation is designed to combat the problem of underage drinking to promote responsible purchases of kegs. Also, it records information necessary to identify, track and prosecute those who do not act responsibly.

- A letter from the Plymouth County Commissioners requesting notification, in writing, of the town's designated representative to the Advisory Board for fiscal year 1993-1994. Selectman Mahoney moved to appoint Chairman DeCosta as representative, which was seconded and passed by Selectman Lambalot. Selectman Lambalot will also serve as Chairman DeCosta's alternate.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they adjourned for the evening at 7:45 pm.

Mahoney, Highway Surveyor Wesley Bowman, and Planning Board member Barry Perkins. The board also appointed Selectman Mahoney as the town's representative to the Joint Transportation Planning Group and Mr. Bowman as his alternate.

• The board unanimously granted two requests from ComGas to obstruct and disturb the surface of 7 Channing Road and 4 Beacon Street, respectively, for the purpose of installing new gas services at the sites.

• The board also approved Special One-Day All Alcoholic Beverage Licenses for the Fairhaven Holy Ghost Clambake to be held on August 22; the Holy Ghost Feast, to be held on July 24 and 25; and the Mattapoisett Holy Ghost Clambake, to be held on August 8.

• The board signed an endorsement of SRPEDD's Annual Update for their "Overall Economic Development Program" in the region. This simply states Mattapoisett's support in SRPEDD's efforts.

Under meeting scheduled throughout the week, Chairman DeCosta noted that the town's annual Harbor Days celebration will be taking place all weekend, from July 16 through July 18, at Shipyard Park. There was also a scheduled meeting of the ORR Ad Hoc Committee to help select members to sit on the newly-formed committee to oversee the repairs to the high school. The meeting will be held on Thursday at 7:00 pm at ORR.

Chairman DeCosta then went over incoming correspondence for the week, beginning with a copy of correspondence sent to Daniel Bungert, Chairman of the town's Conservation Commission, from Buzzards Bay Project (BBP) Manager, Joseph E. Costa, regarding construction efforts on Holly Woods Road. According to Mr. Costa in his letter, the BBP is concerned about construction in the Holly Woods area, especially with regard to wetlands delineation and possible problems with septic systems being installed.

The BBP filed a Request for Determination of Applicability under the state's Wetland Protection Act to require that a new wetlands delineation be performed by the proponent.

Selectman Mahoney was bothered by the BBP's actions and wanted to know by what authority they were acting. "What is their legal authority in this matter?" he asked. "If they are going to request a proceeding before our Conservation Commission, it might be wise for them to consult legal counsel on this matter."

After speaking with members of the ConCom, the board was satisfied that the matter was under control and concurred that the BBP was acting a little prematurely. "It sounds to me like the matter is well under control," Selectman Lambalot said. "From what they've said here, you might think the entire Holly Woods area is in violation."

"I'm more concerned that the BBP may be out of hand and may be blowing this out of proportion," Selectman Mahoney agreed. "They really seem to be making a mountain out of a mole hill. But I think we should stay on top of this matter in the weeks ahead."

Mattapoisett resident Robert C. Gardner next sent a letter and copies of correspondence regarding a complaint he has against neighbor Doris Allen of 10 Linhares Avenue. Mr. Gardner is concerned with his neighbor's pen where she keeps two or three dogs. Mr. Gardner is worried not only about the noise the animals have made, but also the foul smell from their waste. He considers the situation a health hazard and has asked that appropriate steps be taken.

"All of my requests to Ms. Allen have gone unheeded," Mr. Gardner wrote in his letter. "She may make some ineffective swipes at the cleanup when a member of the Board of Health of the Dog Officer enjoins her to do so, but the effort is always short-lived and the offense continues. Suggestions as to how this relief may be obtained would be welcomed."

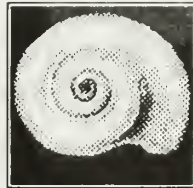

The board agreed to take the matter up with both the Board of Health and Dog Officer Brian Nunes and will hopefully be able to rectify the long-standing situation soon.

The board next received a notice of the next Joint Transportation Planning Group Meeting, to be

A copy of the minutes from the Marion/Mattapoisett/Rochester Housing Co-Op, Inc. meeting, which was held on June 30, were next submitted to the board for their files.

Under the Executive Secretary's report, Ms. Adams noted that she had been informed from Town Counsel that the SEMASS court date for pending litigation, originally slated for July 19, has been continued indefinitely until the Fairhaven case has been resolved at the Superior Court level. The pending appeal filed by SEMASS will put off Mattapoisett's litigation for a while.

Ms. Adams next noted that she had received word from Water/Sewer Superintendent William Nicholson that Fairhaven's Executive Secretary Jeff Osuch advised him that an affirmative vote relative to the funding of Mattapoisett's share of the sewer treatment plant is required by November 15. Ms. Adams said she understands that they are looking to get some type of commitment on the money owed them by that date.

Selectman Mahoney, however, wanted to know exactly what the deadline meant. "We need to know what they need by that date and what the consequences are if we don't comply," he said. "We can let him know that we're prepared to hold a Special Town Meeting in the fall to deal with the matter, but I'd just like to know why he's set that date."

The board and Ms. Adams agreed to check into holding a Special Town Meeting in mid-October sometime to vote on the money owed to Fairhaven.

Ms. Adams then noted that the Council on Aging had requested that the board appoint Helen H. Cadden of 23 Pearl Street as a member of the COA, which they unanimously approved.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they adjourned at 8:05 pm and enjoyed cupcakes provided by Ms. Adams in honor of Selectman Lambalot's forthcoming birthday on Thursday, July 15.

Marion Selectmen's Meeting

Minutes of July 6, 1993

The meeting was called to order at 7:00 pm. Present were Chairman James S. Dougall, Selectman Loretta B. Schaefer, Selectman Albert E. Winters, Executive Secretary Ray E. Pickles, and Secretary Helene Craver.

The Board first met with Town Clerk/Treasurer/Tax Collector Debra Blanchette, regarding her plans to erect a security window in the Collector's office. Ms. Blanchette said that the new arrangement would better serve the public, as two clerks could work at the window where only one is able to work now. Ms. Blanchette explained that the new arrangements would also increase security in the office. She said that the low bidder was Spinnaker Reach Construction Company at $3,280 and described plans for the construction.

Selectman Schaefer noted that this construction had been discussed for several years and she was happy to see that this would finally be accomplished. Ms. Blanchette said that the Finance Committee (FinCom) had given verbal approval for the project and the low bid was lower than the original estimates. Mr. Pickles said that this was classified as an unforeseen expense. Mr. Winters expressed his concern about covering the expense through the Reserve Fund. Mr. Pickles said that this had been approved at the Annual Town Meeting and that three members of the FinCom had signed the transfer from the Reserve Fund. There was a brief discussion regarding security methods and cash drawers. There was also a brief discussion regarding the physical layout of the new window.

Ms. Blanchette requested that the board appoint Yvonne Richard as Assistant Town Clerk in order to help swear in appointees. Selectman Schaefer asked if there would be any problems regarding the union contract with these new duties. Mr. Pickles explained that these duties were narrowly defined and would not entail any contract changes. Ms. Blanchette said Ms. Richard is happy to assist her in this way.

Selectman Schaefer moved to appoint Yvonne Richard as Assistant Town Clerk for a term to expire May 31, 1994, which was seconded and carried unanimously.

Selectman Winters then moved to appoint O. Max Schlaegel to the Marion Housing Partnership Committee, for a term to expire May 31, 1994, which was seconded and carried unanimously.

Chairman Dougall noted there were merit increases for the six town non-union personnel, which were approved at the Annual Town Meeting. Selectman Winters moved the increases, which was seconded and carried unanimously. Selectman Schaefer moved the water commitments in the amount of $862.68, which was seconded and carried unanimously. Chairman Dougall moved a new remote water service in the amount of $675, which was seconded and carried unanimously. Selectman Schaefer moved the minutes of the June 29 meeting, which was seconded and carried unanimously. Selectman Schaefer also moved treasury warrant #1, which was seconded and carried unanimously.

The board then reviewed DPW

Superintendent Robert Zora's weekly report. There was a brief discussion regarding plantings at the Old Landing Cemetery extension. The status of the Perry Hill wellfield was discussed. Mr. Pickles said that they were waiting for a delivery of a second pitless adapter before any more progress could be made. Mr. Pickles said that one of the wells could be online within three days should there be an emergency.

The board reviewed incoming correspondence for the week, including a memo from Selectman Winters, who explained that he was removing himself from discussion and decisions about Ichabod Lane because he was distantly related to several of the parties involved with the dispute.

Mr. Pickles briefly explained the status of the drainage swale on Route 105 and reported that the final construction was scheduled to begin either today or tomorrow.

The board then reviewed correspondence from Rep. William Straus regarding the 748 local calling area. Mr. Blethen said that he felt Rep. Straus had not gone far enough — Marion should have the same calling area as Rochester. Chairman Dougall said he felt a petition might be in order and asked Mr. Blethen if he would be willing to help distribute one. Mr. Pickles said that one solution was to have a foreign exchange line to expand the local calling area. Selectman Winters asked if the base cost was the same in Rochester as in Marion. Mr. Pickles said he was under the impression that Rochester's base cost was less than Marion.

At 7:30 pm, the board met with Dr. Paul Ponte to discuss his mooring revocation. Chairman Dougall turned the meeting over to Selectman Schaefer and left the table, explaining that he is related by marriage to Dr. Ponte. Dr. Ponte requested a continuance of the hearing in order to obtain additional information from the town on other mooring permits granted and/or revoked. Dr. Ponte said that the requested information will prove that the acts of the Harbormaster are capricious, arbitrary and prejudicial and, as such, violate his civil rights.

Dr. Ponte said that he had received a response to his request this evening and was perplexed by Mr. Pickles' letter. Dr. Ponte said that request for information was based upon the reasons given for his mooring being cancelled. Mr. Pickles said that the town did not have the information in the format Dr. Ponte requested. Mr. Pickles asked if Dr. Ponte was requesting information on all 1300 moorings for the years 1991, 1992 and 1993, or on his mooring itself for those years. Mr. Pickles said he had checked with the Secretary of State's office and found that he didn't have to produce information he didn't have.

Mr. Pickles added that he didn't have the information in the format Dr. Ponte requested. Harbormaster George Jennings said that Dr. Ponte would have to be more specific about the information he was requesting. Dr. Ponte said that he wanted the information on which the decision was made regarding his mooring and all other moorings. Mr. Pickles said that if Dr. Ponte gives the town a certified check, he will get as much of the information as is available. Dr. Ponte said that he would check with his attorney.

Selectman Schaefer said there is an obvious communication problem and the town cannot accommodate Dr. Ponte at this time. Dr. Ponte asked the board to assign a date for the continuation of the hearing. Selectman Schaefer said that Dr. Ponte did not have the information he had requested — was he prepared to come in anyway or would he prefer to wait until he had the information?

Mr. Jennings suggested that they wait until they hear from Dr. Ponte after he has the information; then they could set a date. The hearing was concluded and Chairman Dougall returned to his seat.

The board met with Donal Durfee regarding his request for an easement over town property to gain access to his rear lot subdivision. Chairman Dougall read from Mr. Pickles' memo: "Mabel Nunes called, requesting that the roadway north of her property be blocked off, as per the written agreement between the town and Donal Durfee." Mr. Durfee said that there was no such agreement; the agreement in force was for Mr. Durfee to provide an access road. Nothing was said about the town's property, he said.

Town Counsel Thomas P. Crotty said that the agreement contemplates an access road being built upon Mr. Durfee's property. Mr. Pickles said that the Selectmen had decided not to grant a permanent easement over town property and that Ms. Nunes had said that she would pay $1 over any bidder for use of the town property. Mr. Crotty said that the town's property is not a public way and that the town is not supposed to grant easements to residents on town property. Mr. Crotty said that the use of this property for municipal purposes was no longer required and that Mr. Durfee should provide his own access to the back lot. Mr. Durfee objected, maintaining that Ms. Nunes should not have the power to say whether the town closes the road, which has been open for fifty years and he doesn't see why Ms. Nunes has the right to block off secondary access to his property.

Selectman Winters agreed that Ms. Nunes should not have the power to dictate to the town and the town should have the right to say that this is an open and free access road. Mr. Durfee said that he had put the logs on the property when the road was blocked, but that he would remove them. Mr. Pickles

Designer Kitchens By Angela is excited to welcome Eric Kavanagh, C.K.D. as our new Design Associate.

When I first met Eric, the clean, creative and imaginative qualities of his designing impressed me greatly. Eric is also very thorough in all of his work. A certified kitchen designer, Eric attends all the manufacturers' own training shops and the Kitchen and Bath Shows that are offered.

I asked Eric what he liked most about working in the kitchen business. He said that he loves designing and working with people who are excited. The enthusiasm makes the designing pleasure rather than work.

Eric's qualifications include a Bachelor of Science Degree in Architecture and eight years of Kitchen Business experience. This background has enabled him to integrate value, creativity and the life-style of the clients in his design work. To put it quite simply: Eric loves the challenge of transforming the "ugly duckling" (previous kitchen) into the beautiful swan. He has designed and redesigned kitchens, bathrooms, laundry rooms, office space, bedroom built-ins, wet bars, specialized storage systems, and additions.

Eric Kavanagh is anxious to talk to you about kitchens and designing. Stop by to meet him at Designer Kitchens - 92 North Street, Mattapoisett. See for yourself how creative his designs are. Enjoy the assurance of his enthusiasm, knowledge and ease of manner. You will feel most comfortable with him.

Let Eric help you transform your "ugly duckling" into a Beautiful Swan or your "Dreams into Reality."

Sincerely

said that the issue is the town doesn't want anyone placing things on town land. Mr. Durfee complained that everything he wanted to do has been an uphill fight all the way. Mr. Pickles said that he takes exception to that remark, because over the last week and a half he has spent about fifteen hours with Commonwealth Electric trying to get the power lines to the rear lot. Mr. Pickles said that Mr. Durfee has been argumentative with him and Com/Electric, necessitating him to spend a lot of additional time trying to help Mr. Durfee get the power to his building.

The board then reviewed a memo from Police Chief Brian J. Scott requesting that the board declare the 1990 Ford Crown Victoria surplus and dispose of it. Chairman Dougall moved that the cruiser be put out to bid, which was seconded and made unanimous. Mr. Pickles said he would check with the Fire Department to see if they may have a use for the vehicle.

Mr. Pickles explained that the School Committee would be meeting tomorrow night to vote on ratification of the contract. Mr. Pickles said that the Education Reform Bill had made provisions for the Selectmen to have one vote on the action. Selectman Schaefer said that they didn't even know what had been proposed. Mr. Pickles said that the negotiations had used the FinCom's guidelines for wages. Mr. Pickles said that, three years from now, the board might appoint a representative to become involved with the negotiations. Mr. Pickles pointed out a few serious flaws in the Education Reform Bill and said that changes would have to be made.

Chairman Dougall said that he received a letter from Sherman Briggs, who asked to be considered for the opening on the Conservation Commission. Mr. Briggs said that he has researched for potential conflict of interest and that his status as a special municipal employee would allow him to continue to bid on public projects, even though he was a full member of the ConCom. Mr. Briggs said that he had only been disqualified from acting on four to six cases over the last year because of a possible conflict of interest. Selectman Schaefer objected that she had not had the opportunity to talk with the other applicant and asked that the appointment be postponed. Chairman Dougall said that Mr. Briggs' letter would be taken under advisement.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they adjourned at 8:16 pm.

The Selectmen reviewed the minutes from June 28, 1993. A motion was made by Selectman Hughes to approve them as written. Selectman Murphy seconded the motion with Chairwoman Hawkes making the vote unanimous.

The Selectmen reviewed correspondence which had come in during the past week. The binder from MIIA for Property and Casualty Group Coverages was noted in the amount of $29,016.

A request was next submitted from Attorney J. McParland regarding a future meeting on the Police Contract, which will be forwarded to Everett Marder, Esq. for his review.

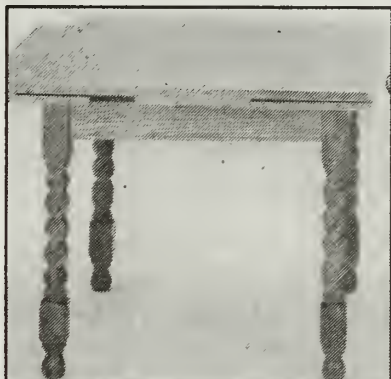

The notice of the "Tag-A-Keg" Regulations will be provided to the proper license holders for their information to enforce the laws from the Alcoholic Beverage Commission, which are now mandatory.

The Selectmen reviewed a request from Dawn Brennan-Daly to allow the Rodman Ride for Kids to pass through the Town of Rochester on September 18 from North Avenue to Route 105 onto Braley Hill Road. A motion was made by Selectman Hughes to approve the request, with a copy provided to the Police and Fire Departments. Selectman Murphy seconded the motion, and Chairwoman Hawkes made the vote unanimous.

A collective purchasing memo from the state will be provided to the various departments for their information. The Selectmen then reviewed a notice for the open house at the State Surplus Property Office, Belchertown State School, to be held on Wednesday, July 7 from 10:00 am to 2:30 pm.

The Selectmen then met with Brian Murphy from the Feitelberg Insurance Company. Mr. Murphy informed the board that he represented The Great American Insurance Program, which wrote insurance for some 260 odd towns and cities with the exception of coverage for Workers' Compensation. Area towns insured with the company included Marion, Mattapoisett and Wareham. Also, an additional 41 cities have come on since July 1, 1993.

Mr. Murphy did state that MIIA, the town's present insurance provider, is a good insurance company. Mr. Murphy reviewed an insurance proposal he had submitted for the Selectmen's perusal, noting the areas which he felt the limits from Feitelberg were the ones the Selectmen should note.

Selectman Hughes had a question when Mr. Murphy was reviewing Boiler and Machinery coverage and the extent to which this machinery was covered. Mr. Murphy informed Selectman Hughes that he would check into whether a sander on a truck which is unregistered would be covered under this insurance or covered under the automobile coverage. Also highlighted by Mr. Murphy were the limits of coverage per location vs. a blanket coverage and the limits per claim and/or per loss. Mr. Murphy noted a difference in the two companies' Umbrella/Excess Liability coverages, noting that MIIA does not include Police Professional and Public Officials in their "umbrella" policy. Selectman Hughes stated he thought that at one time this was changed by MIIA and asked that this be clarified with them.

In summing up his proposal, Mr. Murphy suggested to the Selectmen that they look at what is covered and not at the premium to weigh the differences in the quality of coverage offered by the two companies. Mr. Murphy also explained the difference between an insurance company and a self-insured group and the risks involved with a self-insured group. Mr. Murphy also informed the Selectmen that the Feitelberg Company is better in the property and casualty side due to the Umbrella. Mr. Murphy also brought to the Selectmen's attention school board coverage for Memorial School. He informed them that he did not find any such policy in effect through the town and advised the board to verify if, in fact, the Rochester Memorial School had a policy through the school system.

Under Old Business, the Selectmen reviewed the language for the Special Town Election ballot for August 11, 1993 for passage on to the Town Clerk.

Chairwoman Hawkes informed her fellow Selectmen that she had spoken to Roland Hebert from the Southeast Regional Planning and Economic Development District (SRPEDD) regarding possible funds available for the Mary's Pond Bridge project. It was noted that Mr. Hebert stated it was mandatory to get an inspection report on the bridge in order to receive funds. There were possibilities of receiving 100 percent funding from the state and there were federal funds for a modern structure. A suggestion which was posed was meeting with Ray Pickles from Marion and Chairwoman Hawkes, to see if there were funds available through grants for storm damage. Chairwoman Hawkes did state she felt it a necessity to have an Inspection Report done as a safety factor.

Chairwoman Hakwes next informed her fellow Selectmen that Mr. Allen Stata received the "Chairman's Award" at the recent SRPEDD Banquet and would like to send a letter of congratulations to him for this honor. All agreed to the suggestion.

Chairwoman Hawkes next stated that she would like to take former Selectman Harry A. Brown's place on the Advisory Board for the Ad Hoc Committee at ORR. All agreed.

Chairwoman Hawkes informed her fellow Selectmen that she is aware that Thomas Gayoski, Sr. will be unable to continue as Inspector of Animals. Selectman Hughes made a motion to have the newspapers mention that the town is looking for someone to replace Mr. Gayoski to do the state inspections which are required under this appointment. A motion was made and passed with a unanimous vote of the board.

Selectman Hughes brought up the matter of estimates received for the Town Hall with regard to painting and power-washing/scraping the side and rear of the building. The Selectmen agreed to formally ask three bidders for sealed bids for the work to be done.

Selectman Hughes next brought up the matter of a chain which had been placed across Bates Road by a resident of that road. Selectman Hughes stated this cannot be done due to the fact that this is a town road. He was made aware of it on Saturday evening. Selectman Murphy also commented that there appears to be a problem with people gaining access to the blueberry patches in the area.

Chairwoman Hawkes questioned whether they had the authority to make such a decision. Again, Selectman Hughes stated that this is a town road and the Selectmen can enforce this. A motion was made by Selectman Hughes to correct the situation by taking down the chain across the town road, which was passed with a majority vote of the board.

Additional comments were made by Highway Surveyor Jeff Eldridge, who said that Bates Road must remain open to the last driveway and the chain must be taken down. The Highway Department or Police can accomplish this.

Selectman Hughes also brought up a matter regarding the recent pole hearing on Quaker Lane. He stated he had a call from Mrs. Perreault, an abuttor, concerning the location of the pole in this matter. Mr. R. Thibodeau, a New England Telephone representative, will be contacted by Mrs. Perreault with her concerns.

The Selectmen next spoke of badges for former police officers within the Police Department. Chairwoman Hawkes stated that she is aware that of the three officers, Mr. Shubert has returned his badge and the other two have not. Selectman Hughes suggested that the board purchase three badges with the designation "retired" on them and present them to the officers. Selectman Murphy questioned the legality of this, and the officers carrying the badges.

The Selectmen agreed to contact Attorney Marder once again, since they had not heard from him in the matter. Selectman Murphy stated that he would contact (Police Chief Denham) to speak with him on the matter. Selectman Hughes agreed to wait to bring up the matter again after hearing from the attorney and Selectman Murphy.

The Selectmen reviewed a legal counsel transfer originally in the amount of $1,000 which now had to be re-voted to include an additional amount. A motion was made by Selectman Hughes to rescind the previous vote in the amount of $1,000 and amend the figure to read $1,180. Selectman Murphy seconded the motion which was passed with a unanimous vote of the board. It was noted by the Selectmen that the legal counsel invoice for the last eight days of June totalled $147.58.

The Selectmen next reviewed a transfer request from the Conservation Commission in the amount of $95.47. It was noted that the amount left in the appropriation was $13.31, not "0." A motion was made to approve the request for passage on to the ConCom.

The Selectmen reviewed a transfer request from the Building Inspector in the amount of $1,071.30. A motion was thereafter made by Selectman Hughes to approve the same as requested for passage on to the FinCom. Selectman Murphy seconded the motion, with Chairwoman Hawkes making the vote unanimous.

The Selectmen then reviewed a transfer request from the Fire Department in the amount of $3,465.12 for year-end payroll. A motion was made and passed with a unanimous vote of the board.

The Selectmen reviewed the First Quarter Workers' Compensation invoice from MIIA in the amount of $8,760. A motion was made to approve the invoice as submitted, which was passed with a unanimous vote of the board.

The board next reviewed the bond for the Town Clerk in the amount of $5,000. A motion was the end of the last fiscal year (June 30) and $110.64 for the Communications Center to cover wages of the dispatchers for the same period due to unforeseen duty during storms last winter.

Chairwoman Hawkes then went over incoming correspondence for the week, beginning with a response from the Massachusetts Highway Department regarding the guard rail repair on Route 105. According to the letter, the department is aware of the damaged section of guard rail and will be repairing it soon under its Accident Recovery Program.

Resident Georgia D. Chamberlain next submitted two letters of commendation to Police Chief Walter V. Denham, praising the efforts of Officers Bert Gleason and Robert LaVallee for the professionalism in responding to two separate incidents on July 4 and June 28, respectively. Ms. Chamberlain noted that "the Rochester residents are indeed fortunate to have a police officer on the department of the caliber of Officer Gleason" and that "Officer LaVallee is indeed a credit to the Rochester Police Department."

Chairwoman Hawkes asked that the letters be placed into the folders of each officer, to which her fellow Selectmen unanimously agreed.

A copy of a letter sent from Anthony Massimino, Real Estate Consultant, to Marion Executive Secretary Ray E. Pickles was next on the agenda. The letter discussed a proposed site for the previously suggested Regional Transfer Station to be used by Marion, Carver, Wareham and Rochester. The site suggested by Mr. Massimino is located with frontage on Route 28 (near King's Highway) and is central to all towns involved.

Selectman Hughes suggested the recommendation be taken under advisement and later discussed during a meeting of the various Boards of Health and the Regional Refuse Disposal District.

A request was next sent from the Southeast Economic Development (SEED) Corporation asking the town's support for setting up a Micro-Loan Program in the region. The SEED Corporation is planning to apply for a grant from the Executive Office of Communities and Development (EOCD) to provide direct loans of up to $25,000 for the startup of small businesses in the region. The board unanimously agreed to support SEED's initiative in the program.

Under the board's signature was a letter addressed to Brian E. F. Meade, Esq. of Smith, Smith & Price, P.C. regarding the case of Dalton, Palumbo & Shubert and the Town of Rochester. The letter stated that the Board of Selectmen agreed to allow the former Rochester police officers to retain their badges as a memento of their service to the town, but may not be used to give the impression that they are sworn police officers in the Town of Rochester. If the former officers, who were not discharged but rather were not reappointed at the discretion of the Board of Selectmen, did not agree with this, the badges were to be returned at once.

Selectman Murphy said he had some problems with allowing them to keep the badges after talking with Chief Denham and others at the department. "I'm not comfortable with giving up our town badges ... we gave Bruce Torres a special retirement badge," he said. "I think we've set the precedent and I'd move that we get our badges back and issue them retirement badges instead."

Selectman Hughes seconded the motion, which was passed with a majority vote of the board.

The board then unanimously approved payment of a MIIA Property & Casualty Group Invoice for $29,016 for fiscal year 1994.

Under Old Business, a letter was submitted from Steven P. Leconte of Marion Road expressing his interest in filling the position of Animal Control Officer in the wake of Thomas Gayoski's inability to continue in that capacity due to illness. The board unanimously agreed to appoint Mr. Leconte and the new Animal Control Officer for the town, effectively immediately.

Under New Business, Chairwoman Hawkes noted that any bids for or acceptance of Revenue Anticipation Notes, which allow the town to borrow money for a short term in anticipation of incoming monies, should be cleared with the Board of Selectmen before being accepted.

Chairwoman Hawkes also noted that negotiations between the town and the Rochester Police Association are slated to begin either July 21 or July 28. Those present during the negotiations will be Chief Denham, Town Counsel, Chairwoman Hawkes as a representative of the Board of Selectmen, and a representative of the Police Association. Selectman Hughes asked that the board be kept abreast of whatever is discussed during the negotiations, to which Chairwoman Hawkes agreed, as long as it was done in Executive Session.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they adjourned promptly at 7:25 pm to attend the Special Town Meeting slated for that night.

Rochester Special Town Meeting July 12, 1993

It was the Special Town Meeting that almost wasn't.

Slated to begin at 7:30 pm in the Conference Room of Town Hall, Town Moderator William Chamberlain consulted the tellers to learn that only 40 people had checked in. At least 50 residents were needed to make a quorum under state law.

Enter Selectman David L. Hughes. Or rather, exit David Hughes.

For the next 20 minutes, Selectman Hughes stood out on Rounseville Road in front of Town Hall and flagged down every passing car, asking registered voters to please spare a few minutes of their time to attend the Special Town Meeting.

By 7:50 pm, a quorum was reached, and Mr. Chamberlain called the meeting to order with a Salute to the Flag led by Rep. William Straus.

After determining that the warrant had been served and duly posted, Mr. Chamberlain read Article 1: "To see if the Town will vote to accept the provisions of Chapter 33, Acts of 1991 and to appropriate the sum of $124,281 from available funds, or take any other action thereon."

Mr. Chamberlain explained that this money represents funds already appropriated from the Massachusetts Highway Department and it needs to be accepted via Town Meeting before Highway Surveyor Jeff Eldridge can use it to repair roads in town.

The article was moved and passed with a unanimous vote of the Town Meeting floor.

Mr. Chamberlain then cited Article 2 as written on the warrant: "To see if the Town will vote to raise and appropriate, transfer from available funds, or borrow a sum of money not to exceed $100,000 to repair and resurface Mary's Pond Bridge, or take any other action thereon."

Some people were initially concerned that an engineering study should be conducted before any repairs were made to the structure. Mr. Eldridge noted that he had been in contact with the state for the last two weeks and was trying to seek alternative funding for the project, but the time factor and the possibility that the state might require major changes to the bridge made it difficult.

Selectmen Chairwoman Lorraine Roy Hawkes also noted that she had been in touch with a SRPEDD representative and said he also suggested having an engineering firm conduct a study of the bridge to see what needs to be done. In fact, an engineering study should be conducted every two years to ensure that the structure is sound. She also said that federal funds would dictate that a new structure be erected, thereby destroying the historic value of the bridge.

Rep. Straus was then allowed to speak briefly on the matter. "I spoke with the Highway Department in Boston and there are state funds available for a project like this," he said. "But all cases are ranked on the basis of severity of need. They assured me they would send an engineering team to evaluate the structure within the next week. That process will go ahead regardless of your vote tonight. But there's no guarantee of when the bridge might be repaired, if at all."

Selectman Hughes agreed the bridge needs to be repaired as soon as possible so that Mary's Pond Road — which was closed last month — could be re-opened. "For safety and liability reasons, we agreed with Jeff (Eldridge) to close the bridge," he said. "We're asking for up to $100,000. But we'll only spend what we need to fix it."

After some haggling over the wording of the article, which needed to specify where the money would be coming from, according to FinCom Chairwoman Pat Ryan, the article was amended by Selectman Hughes to read as follows: "To see if the Town will vote to raise and appropriate a sum of money not to exceed $100,000 to repair and resurface Mary's Pond Bridge contingent upon an override of Proposition 2 1/2, or take any other action thereon."

Ms. Ryan said that the FinCom agreed the project should be done through debt exclusion, which would be raised in taxes for a one year period and be done — without increasing the levy limit.

The article was finally moved and passed through a unanimous vote of the Town Meeting floor.

Article 3 was then read by Mr. Chamberlain as follows: "To see if the Town of Rochester will vote to accept the layout of Look's Mill Lane as a public way from High Street to and including the cul-de-sac of said Look's Mill Lane, in accordance with a Plan entitled 'Subdivision Plan of Land for ASM Realty, Inc. in Rochester, MA, dated August 26, 1987,' or take any other action thereon."

Georgia Chamberlain of the Conservation Commission noted that the project had been submitted back in 1987, but certain changes needed to be made before the ConCom would approve it. Since that time, Highway Surveyor Jeff Eldridge concurred that the necessary changes, including the addition of a retention fence, had been made.

The article was thereby passed through a Letter to the Editor

To the Editor:

The Massachusetts River Protection Bill seeks to protect and enhance the values of our rivers and prevent their further degradation. Having passed the Senate last month with a vote of 36-3, the bill is currently awaiting a vote in the House of Representatives. The support of voters in this region of such beautiful rivers as the Westport, Slocum, Mattapoisett, Sippican, and Weweantic, to list a few, will send a strong message to local legislators that the protection of our state's rivers is of utmost concern to all of us concerned about the environmental quality of southeastern Massachusetts.

Development along the river banks in the form of permanent structures, roadways, and parking lots causes increases in nonpoint source of runoff pollution carrying bacteria, hydrocarbons, excess nutrients, metals, and other toxins into our surface waters. The Rivers Bill, which establishes a setback from rivers of 150 feet in most areas (25 feet in heavily developed cities such as New Bedford and Fall River), provides a natural vegetative buffer strip to allow for the filtering and treatment of such runoff pollutants before they can reach and degrade the water. Here in the Buzzards Bay watershed, the effects of runoff pollution are most clearly seen as contributing to the closing of shellfish beds in coastal areas and the excessive growth of algae which harms aquatic plants thereby depleting the water of oxygen and further stressing fish life.

In addition to the important benefits of the Rivers Bill in regard to pollution control, river buffer strips provide a large number of other values that serve the interests of everyone. The protection of our precious drinking water supplies, groundwater replenishment, flood and erosion control, and wildlife habitat are all issues addressed by the Rivers Bill. And what about recreational values — canoeing, swimming, fishing, or just simply enjoying — aren't these worth saving in a state that loses more and more acres of open space to development each day?

At a recent meeting of the Cranberry County Chamber of Commerce some issues of concern were raised in regard to the Rivers Bill. During the discussion there were a number of statements suggesting that the Rivers Bill was in some ways in conflict with the existing state legislation concerning wetlands. To the contrary, this bill serves only to complement the Wetlands Protection Act through strengthening the preservation of wetland resources by establishing an easily defined "no-build" area. The Wetlands Protection Act allows no building within a wetland resource area and there is no process for applying for a variance. In the Rivers Bill, however, if a landowner can prove that a strict application of the river setback would constitute a hardship, financial or otherwise, he/she can apply for a variance through the local Conservation

The scenic value and quality of our waters, the natural integrity of our state's rivers, deserves the important protection offered by the Massachusetts Rivers Protection Bill. Anyone interested in protecting this heritage today and in the future should write or call their state representatives to tell them that the quality of Massachusetts' rivers is important and they should give their full support to the Rivers Bill. Notice from the Mattapoissett Harbormaster

All Winter Sticks are required to be removed from Mattapoissett waters on or before June 15 each year, or may be removed by the Commissioner at the owner's expense. Any winter stick, mooring ball or other type of float, other than a legally registered lobster pot or mooring ball, left in the water will be removed. Should your device still be in the water, please remove it immediately.

The Pump Out Station is operational on weekends between 8:00 and 4:00 and on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday between 8:00 and 1:00. To use the station, you simply tie up to long wharf near the swordfish. Walk up to the Harbormaster's building and ask to be pumped-out. It's that easy and there is no charge. Please help keep our harbor clean.

- several all black with both long and short hair, including a darling short-haired black female with double paws

The group would also like to remind everyone that the Fairhaven Kmart is still featuring a barrel for donated goods (especially cat and kitten food) and Coke bottles in which to place donations to help their cause. As always, volunteers are needed to help

Book Review

The Good Frenchman: The True Story of the Life and Times of Maurice Chevalier
• Edward Behr, Villard, $27

Maurice Chevalier, the French singer and actor, possessed one of the great smiles in show business history.

His smile distilled his stage and screen personality with a single flash: warm, good-natured, a bit simple even, and utterly non-predatory. He performed with such good humor and apparent simplicity of desire that it would have appeared churlish to deny him his needs, such as a house in the country, quite a few good women, tunes that illuminated both the French sexual innuendo and sentimentality, among other accoutrements of a well-fed stardom. But Chevalier had to give his charm a rest now and then.

The Chevalier examined by Edward Behr really does appear to be a simple man. His private worries tended toward a fear of poverty that made him unreasonably stingy in many ways, and of course the loss of his public's adulation. Fortunately, Chevalier was not burdened with self-destructive tendencies.

Behr points out Chevalier's total disregard for politics, which led him to make public blunders identifying him with the Vichy government. Like many other non-Jewish performers and intellectuals, it did not occur to Chevalier how his stardom could be used for propaganda purposes.

In the end, Behr demonstrates that Chevalier's life needed its times to be interesting, more than most performers. The author himself is worn down by consulting self-congratulating and deceiving memoirs by Chevalier, nine volumes worth of recollections about fees paid to him, adulation received, the great lovers, everything he feared losing pasted down in his own words forever.

Mattapoisett Lions Club Earns Honors

The Mattapoisett Lions Club was recently honored with three distinct awards presented during the club's Stag Cook-out held on July 7 by Past District Governor Harry A. Brown.

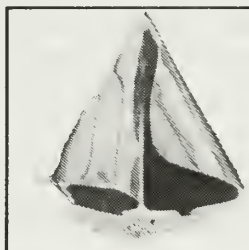

The club itself, now in its 40th year, was awarded Best Club of its size in Region V, Zone 10, District 33-S, which includes some 66 Lions Clubs throughout southeastern Massachusetts and Cape Cod. Immediate Past President Jim Shepley was awarded Best President for the 1992-1993 year and Bill Armitage was given Best Secretary honors for the same period, his third time to receive that award. The Mattapoisett Lions Club is part of Region V, Zone 10, which includes clubs of comparable size (51-75 members).

Mr. Shepley said he was honored by this singular event and proud that the club had been given three awards. "Without the dedicated efforts of an excellent Board of Directors and a concerned

Famous New York Circus is Coming to Mattapoisett

Vidbel's Circus will be performing in Mattapoisett on August 2, with performances scheduled at 6:00 pm and 8:15 pm. The circus grounds, located at Mahoney's Field on Route 6, will become a beehive of activity when the circus arrives around 8:00 am and the red and white striped big top is set up. Experienced circus goers know from past years to bring a camera and plenty of film to capture the magic and excitement of the circus day.

The Vidbels are a very proud family of circus performers and circus owners. For many years Joyce and Al Vidbel performed with Ringling Bros. & Barnum and Bailey Circus and other major circuses in America and Europe. They also presented their animal acts at the famous Catskill Game Farm, a major tourist attraction in New York State.

The Mattapoisett Lions Club is sponsoring the visit of Vidbel's Circus in Mattapoisett. They ask the public support their fundraising project by buying reduced price advance tickets now.

Tickets are available now at Don's Tire, Village Styling Shop, G.H. Dunn Insurance Agency, the Ice Cream Slip, and from Clayton King.

Mariner Soccer Club Wins Silver Medal

The annual Massachusetts Youth State Soccer Tournament took place on the weekend of June 25-28 at the University of Massachusetts Amherst. The South Coast Soccer League was represented in the U-12 Girls Division II by the Mariner Soccer Club. The Mariner I team won their league with a record of 9 wins, 0 losses, and 1 tie. During the regular season the Mariner ladies scored 54 goals while allowing only 4 goals against them.

On Saturday, June 25, the Mariner team overpowered their first opponent in an impressive 6-0 victory. The second game on Saturday against the Brookside Blasters, the Pioneer Valley Champions, proved to be one of the most thrilling victories of the tournament for Mariner. With the score tied 2-2 and with 45 seconds left in the game, Jessica Grondski managed to break away and score, giving Mariner a 3-2 victory and a spot in the semi-finals. On Sunday morning, Mariner finished the preliminary round with a victory over Pittsfield by a score of 3-0.

The semi-final match between Mariner and Lynn was played on Sunday afternoon in the hot and humid weather. The Lynn team was no match for the Mariner ladies that afternoon, as the team totally dominated the game with a 5-0 victory. Leading the scoring for Mariner in this semi-final match was Amanda Hasenfuss with 2 goals.

After winning four games in the extreme heat, the Mariner team had made it to the U-12 State Championship game. It was the last of the 362 games played at the Massachusetts Tournament of Champions. The Mariner and Winchester teams were evenly matched and both teams exhibited the will and desire to win. Midway through the first half, Winchester was awarded a penalty kick. As every spectator and player held their breath, Kate Ostneberg, the Mariner goalie, came up with another fantastic save. The momentum now turned in Mariner's favor. But with 5 minutes left in the first half, the Mariner team was assessed a penalty which gave the Winchester team a player advantage for the rest of the game.

In the second half, although they were missing a player, the Mariner ladies carried the play to Winchester. The Mariner defense, Lauren Silva, Tracy Nichols, and Lynn Ulrichsen, turned aside the Winchester attack time after time, until late in the game, with less than a minute left, a shot slipped by and into the Mariner goal. Winchester had won, 1-0. Mariner had played an unbelievable game.

The Mariner quest had ended in a Silver Medal, but the warm memories of this great weekend will never be forgotten. Congratulations to the Mariner team on a fantastic season!

Summer Fair in Marion

The First Congregational Church of Marion announced that the "nearly 50 year old" Summer Fair will take place on the church grounds on Saturday, July 24. David Pierce has been named Chairman of the 1993 Summer Fair.

The church's Sewing Society sold aprons, baby clothes, and other clothing they had hand sewn to raise money for mission work in the early 1940's. The Summer Fair evolved into an important social event for the church community, and today the fair has become a major fundraising event in the church calendar.

Susan Nichols and her team of volunteers have begun recipe planning for the Prepared Foods Table. Cheddar cheese by the pound will be sliced by Ruby and Bob Jones, while Clark and Ruth Streeter will manage the Sweet Shop. The Children's Corner will offer craft activities, games, and treats for children under the supervision of Phyllis Washburn. The Chapel Cafe in the Community Center will sell lobster rolls and other luncheon fare.

If you are cleaning your attic and cellar, Yvonne Jackson will accept your donations to the White Elephant Table. Toys, puzzles, and games are always popular with browsers. Call Yvonne at 748-0378. If your bookshelves need weeding, Carol and Bob Richardson will be happy to receive your donations for the Book Nook (748-2043).

Your perennials prospered and your beds need thinning? Bob Marson or Russ White will happily receive your gift of plants for the Plant and Vegetable Stand (748-0306).

If you are an artist or a craftsman and want to donate a sample of your work to the church for the Craft Table or the Silent Auction display, bring your item with your name and suggested selling price any weekday morning to the church office in the Community Center (located in the rear of the Marion General Store parking lot).

The fair will be held rain or shine from 10:00 am to 1:30 pm.

Love Letters

The Marion Art Center has just been granted the stage performance rights to "Love Letters," the award-winning play by A. R. Gurney. In this wry and poignant tale told entirely through letters, from their first scrawled valentines of childhood, to the last guilty goodbyes, Melissa Gardner and Andrew Makepeace Ladd III's letters envelop us in a unique nostalgia.

The show is scheduled for three performances only — July 29 - 30 at 8:00 pm and will be read by different couples. Casting is now taking place.

Dagmar Unhoch and Richard Webb will be reading one of those evenings. Announcement of final casting will be made next week. For information, please call the Art Center at 748-1266.
